Headline:
Sunny spells and showers.

Today:
Bright with sunny spells and a few showers across the east at first, the showers developing more widely through the morning and, in the east, becoming occasionally heavy this afternoon while showers in the west become fewer. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Tonight:
Stirlingshire and much of Perthshire dry this evening with some late sunshine, but showers continue across Angus and Fife. Becoming cloudier from north overnight with outbreaks of mainly light rain. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Wednesday:
A cloudy start with outbreaks of mainly light rain, the cloud breaking up through the morning with showers developing. The showers, occasionally heavy, die out across the west later. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Cloud and outbreaks of rain soon spread northeast Thursday with strengthening easterly winds. Cloudy with further occasionally heavy rain Friday. Sunny spells and showers through Saturday.
